REQUIRED COURSES

There is a set number of Required Courses. The required courses titles, and descriptions follow.

ELECTIVE COURSES

Electives, when included in the requirements for an academic Degree, may include any 300-Level courses from Chaplaincy, Spiritual Care, Spiritual Direction, Clinical Pastoral Psychotherapy, or Thanatology.

UNITS of CPE

Some of the students will already have taken 1, 2, 3, or 4 units of CPE elsewhere, and that is ok. Those units you have taken elsewhere, upon approval, will count towards your academic Degree. If you are still in need of 1, 2, 3, or 4 units of CPE in order for you to obtain the required 4 for the Doctorate, or 2 for the Master, we utilize the Graduate Academy of CPE Supervision (GACS).

GACS CPE

A bold statement indeed, however, we see our Graduate Academy of CPE Supervision as the only existing CPE program in the world that utilizes ALL of the areas emphasized in the Education / Teaching / Supervision of Clinical Pastoral Education & Training (CPE) including: Formation of the Chaplain/Pastor/Spiritual Care Provider, SCA's 19 Quality Indicators, Skills & Abilities from the Field, Psychodynamic Psychotherapeutic Chaplaincy, Character First, Family Systems, Existential/Theological/Philosophical Reflection, Bio-Psycho-Socio-Spiritual (Holistic) Chaplaincy, Interfaith Multifaith Chaplaincy, and What it means to be a Spiritually Literate Chaplain. From Anton Theophilus Boisen & Richard Clarke Cabot (1923) to Best Practices (2024) with an emphasis in Spiritually Integrated Chaplain Functioning.

Description: SCA CAPSTONE utilizes the Graduate Academy of CPE Supervision (GACS) for teaching Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE). CPE is the experiential component of the Doctoral programs. GACS offers updated, current, contemporary Clinical Pastoral Education and Training. CPE centers in the past have traditionally created dividing lines similar to the silos offered in the medical care industry. CPE cognate groups have fallen victim to the same type of one-upmanship as has befallen many of our religious groups and denominational subtleties today. GACS utilizes all of the major areas such as pastoral psychotherapy, spirituality, skills, formation, interfaith, and multifaith perspectives in it's search for the best way that a chaplain or spiritual care provider can offer healing to those in need and in pain. Utilizing a bio-psycho-socio-spiritual perspective the helping professional can draw from many resources in order to assist someone in their spiritual journey. GACS takes CPE back to the days of Boisen and Cabot, yet stays relevant with today's highly competitive market of quality indicators, best practices, and interfaith chaplaincy and spiritual care.
